Have you ever wondered what happens to you after you die? Not in a religious sense. I don't want to get into that mess. I mean the practical stuff. Where does your body end up? Who finds it? Where it needs to go and who has to move it there? I know I never thought about what was going to happen to me, let alone to you.

But now I know, and I've got to tell you, it's pretty gross most of the time.
