She knew she should stay away from him, but she couldn't say no to this bad boy. So what, he's a criminal? The heart wants what it wants... Isabelle Turner lives a quiet life now, having put her wild past behind. She's learned from her mistakes and is sure she won't repeat them. Until a mysterious stranger shows up in her life...ragged, wounded, and oh-so-handsome.

Ashton (Ash) Carter is on a run. With the help of his brothers, he has managed to escape from prison, but now his future is up in the air. Having a bullet hole in his shoulder does not help things either. And now this hot, gorgeous, wild-at-heart beauty has entered his life.

Life as a fugitive is no picnic, and Ash is determined to find the truth and exonerate his name. Isabelle is hell-bent on helping him, no matter the sacrifice.

Will Ash and Isabelle manage to escape their past? Or will it bring them closer together?
