Sexy and smart, Chyna Marsielles seems to have everything going for her. She has a promising modeling career, a brother who would kill for her and loyal, caring friends. A blossoming romance with multi-millionaire playboy Jason Wang introduces her to the jet-set lifestyle of the young, rich and ambitious. From the outside her life is picture perfect. So why is she having constant nightmares about her dead mother...and why does she have the sneaking suspicion that things are not what they really seem? When revelations from the past usher in a new and dangerous reality, Chyna is faced with life or death consequences, and it will take all the instincts and strength she possesses just to survive.
