Same Beach, Next Year by Dorothea Benton Frank Conversation Starters In “Same Beach, Next Year” readers are introduced to vibrant characters in a fantastic setting.

In the Lowcountry of South Carolina, two families navigate friendship, marriage, and family. After meeting on the Isle of Palms, former sweethearts Adam Stanley and Eve Landers strike up a new friendship that affects their spouses as much as themselves. The resulting jealousies and conflicts shape each individual’s life and play into a grand story of devotion and love. Dorothea Benton Frank’s novel follows in the vein of her previous work, returning to the author’s beloved Lowcountry to weave a tale of opulent getaways and family drama. The “dazzling celebration” of the novel invites readers to indulge in tragedies and heartbreaks alongside the characters, ultimately repeating the theme of support the author capitalizes on. Many readers enjoy Frank’s work for its focus on family drama and its themes of friendship and marriage. A Brief Look Inside: EVERY GOOD BOOK CONTAINS A WORLD FAR DEEPER than the surface of its pages. The characters and their world come alive, and the characters and its world still live on.

Conversation Starters is peppered with questions designed to bring us beneath the surface of the page and invite us into the world that lives on. These questions can be used to... Create Hours of Conversation: • Promote an atmosphere of discussion for groups • Foster a deeper understanding of the book • Assist in the study of the book, either individually or corporately • Explore unseen realms of the book as never seen before
