Iris Natasha Montgomery is a young woman, hiding her charms underneath the layers of conservative clothes and proper behavior. Since the promotion a few years ago, she became the youngest CEO of her company, focusing all her thoughts only on her job. The last thing on her mind is getting naked and letting go of all her restraints. But when her assistant Marcus, a man with the body every woman desired, catches her in a steamy shower, she can't deny the attraction between them. He opens her eyes, revealing the burning lust inside her, waiting to be unleashed. Will Iris give in, to the world of passion and wild, hardcore lust?
