The Pursuit of Hockeyness celebrates all things hockey by offering fans a compendium of people, places and events that should be seen and/or experienced before the final buzzer sounds (if you know what we mean). The Pursuit of Hockeyness is a must-do checklist of "everything" hockey fans need to accomplish in their lifetime. There are 99 featured suggestions, each accompanied by a full-colour photo, ranging from interesting places to visit to unique events that have to be experienced to be believed to the colourful people and players that make hockey the greatest game on earth. Items on the list run the gamut of serious, funny, obscure and compelling; and, every NHL team as well as every major hockey league in North America (and most in Europe, too) is covered.
