Enjoy Steampunk with a light satirical touch? Why not get to know VALEDICTORIA SCOTT ... A plucky lass of the forward-thinking 1870s ... steam-powered transportation, intricate mechanical inventions, and amazing electrical devices abound in the land of Anglia and its mysterious northern neighbour, Scotia ... this brave new 19th Century world isn't dystopian, nor utopian ... just alternatopian! On her 21st birthday, orphaned scullery-maid Valedictoria finds her life changed in a twinkling when a mysterious legacy whisks her away to become the heiress of gloomy, isolated Ravensdale Manor. Romance and jeopardy, satire and puns ensue! First in a new series.
