A legendary warrior from Mars' ancient past. A struggling young writer from 1827 Baltimore. Soon, cosmic events put in motion by the Enchanter Montessor and his ward Ligeia cause the two to meet. Gullivar Jones and Egar Allan Poe must then learn to work together, if they are to stop the machinations of Rodrik-Usher the Damned... or both their worlds will be destroyed! An original fantasy in which the famous American writer meets the hero created by Edwin Arnold in his classic 1905 Martian novel.
