Novelette – science fiction horror: 14,000 words They're coming... Early in the twenty-second century, scientists discovered how to explore the galaxy by folding space and the corporate-military colonized the first near-habitable earth-like planet they could find and christened it Paradigm Alpha. But, within the first few years, Outpost 3 was attacked by an alien force. The horror of the attack was classified and marines and gunships were sent to defend the colonists and Earth's foothold on the stars. Two days ago the aliens returned and the marines of Outpost 9 launched a counterattack, but have not been heard from since. Soon after, the other Outposts went off-line. Now, the aliens are massing than a kilometer away from Outpost 9 and the colonists are isolated and defense. With the knowledge of the inconceivably horrific attack on Outpost 3 still fresh in Lane Pierce's mind, he has convinced the colonists on a course of action. The only remaining question is if he will have the courage and the conviction to defend the colonists and do the unthinkable.
