A Course in Gratitude is a manual that can be read again and again for those of us seeking transformation. Gratitude is an uplifting practice that allows us to create the lives that we are wanting. There is joy.

There is clarity.

There is fun. There is abundance. There is love. All of those gems are here for us, right now, and gratitude gifts us the eyes to see it. A Course in Gratitude offers practical, easy steps for practicing appreciation in our daily lives while reminding us of who we truly are. We are all, every single creature, simply Source expressing itself infinitely and wonderfully. Gratitude guides us to our inner Source, that place of infinite possibility, and it is in this space that we wield the power to create the lives we want.
