Raised in a traditional Greek family and later abandoned by everyone, including her husband, Nicky is a survivor. She has dedicated herself to raising Imogen—who was herself abandoned as a baby—as her own daughter, but Imogen is now a 15-year-old eager to test her boundaries. Nicky struggles as she tries to reconcile Imogen's need for independence with her own strong desire to provide her with a better future in this incisive exploration of contemporary family relationships.
