Swami Prabhavananda spoke and lived in the United States for over 50 years. The talks as collected in this book show he was completely familiar with the western mind and the problems that we as westerners have to deal with. In Religion in Practice the Swami discusses: Man and God The Problem of Evil The Goal of Life Happiness Perfection Samadhi or Transcendental Consciousness The Mind—It's Powers and Usage Control of the Subconscious Mind Overcoming Obstacles in Spiritual Life The Swami then answers the 26 most common questions he has encountered during his years of teaching in America, including: If God is so good, why is there evil? What is the role of sex in religion? What is your opinion of drugs? Is it wrong to eat meat? How can we believe that God loves us?
