Experience a side to Porter few people knew. Novelist/historian Richard Lloyd Dewey portrays the family side to Porter in this series volume. Here, you live with a pioneer family and their tragedies and triumphs. You befriend the woman he loved and lost. You feel with him the sorrows and joys of life amidst the turmoil of early frontier battles against raging mobs, living the promise from Joseph that if he never cuts his hair he would never die by bullet or blade. See how he becomes Joseph Smith's bodyguard. This volume also contains the most comprehensive photo essay of historic Nauvoo ever published. Celebrate with him as he defeats his enemies and finally wins the love and respect of his children, whom he thought he'd never again see. This is a highly emotionally charged biographical novel that tells the facts and helps you understand why Porter Rockwell did what he did, as it's never before been revealed. All of this is in Vol. 2 of Richard Lloyd Dewey's mas! terpiece epic saga, The Porter Rockwell Chronicles.
