Even in the shadows there is light... and where there is light there is love Ariana Sol is just like any other twenty-four year old. She is a university student, struggling to pay rent and absolutely confused by boys, at least she was. In one night Ari's entire world is turned upside down when a stranger rescues her from a brutal attack. But this stranger isn't normal, hell he isn't even human... his name is Ragon and he is a vampire. But Ragon isn't the only vampire in Brisbane, there are hundreds of them, hiding amongst the shadows of the human sources they feed from. Three laws govern the vampires- the Final Death Laws, and by protecting Ari, Ragon has broken the most sacred one. What are Ragon's true reasons for wanting to protect Ariana? There is something he isn't telling her... something that will change everything she thought she knew about her past... something that will shape her future.
